

28 - 4(ANNUAL) HOUR HANDGUN (RE)QUALIFICATION COURSE

You are responsible for reading and reviewing the FDACS Firearms Training Manual (FTM), attending classroom lectures, and live fire range training. This course is designed for shooters with some prior experience and knowledge on firearms, gun safety, and live shooting. The Course will consist of 20/3 hours of classroom time and 8/1 hours of range live fire time. The instructor will discuss general rules of firearms safety and conduct a presentation on the topics listed below. Upon completion of the classroom portion, you must complete a written examination that consists of 50/25 questions and pass the exam with a minimum score of 70%.

The topics to be reviewed in the classroom are:

- Legal Aspects of the Use of Firearms
- Firearms Familiarization, Mechanical Operations, and Marksmanship
- Written Examination
- DOWNLOAD THE FIREARMS TRAINING MANUAL AT FDACS.COM:
- https://licensing.fdacs.gov/forms/P-02079\_FTM-Student\_Guide.PDF
- The course of fire consists of three strings of 48 rounds each for a total of 144 rounds (one practice and two qualification rounds).
- If you qualify on any of the strings of fire, you will not be required to shoot additional strings. To successfully demonstrate handgun proficiency, you must score a minimum of 70% or 168 out of a possible 240 points.
- If you do not comply with these requirements (like unsafe weapon handling, improper drawing, or firing too many rounds) you will not qualify.

The Range time:

- Practical Exercise (Dry Fire)
- Requalification - Live Fire

Bring to the range:

- Handgun (must be encased)
- Ammunition (at least 150 rounds)
